

UNITY

Unity is the expression of relationships built when we choose to come together. The Great Blue Heron is used to represent this concept for their natural characteristics and the iconic status they have achieved throughout history within man's different cultures.

Posturing suggests of two birds becoming one. Although one bird is looking down, maintain a connection to its past history and culture, the other looks up and out to the future. The draw of two opposites.

KEN NEWMAN
SCULPTURES